Is lunch provided during summer school?

Students are encouraged to bring their own lunch otherwise they are welcome to purchase fresh hot and cold food from The McDonald College cafeteria each day, which is on the venue grounds. Due to safety restrictions students are not allowed to leave the College on lunch breaks.

What do I need to bring or prepare?

Students will be emailed a General Information Pack in December, which details everything they need to bring in terms of clothing and amenities and what they need to know before attending.

How do I get there?

There is limited car parking on site and most students will commute via public transport. The McDonald College has a security private entrance, which allows students to commute via North Strathfield station to the College from outer and inner Sydney.

I am sick/injured and can no longer attend. Can I get a refund?

We understand that some students may obtain injuries or become sick prior to summer school, which is why we offer a 50% refund upon presentation of a medical certificate. We do not issue credits or refunds to students who can simply no longer attend, however, compassionate grounds may warrant a credit to be used at a later date. This is case-by-case only and is subject to strict approval. ISS reserves the right to retain a $100 administration in the case of credit approval.

I haven't received a booking confirmation yet. What should I do?

TryBooking will automatically send an email confirmation once the transaction has occurred, followed by a second introductory email from us. If you have not received your confirmation email please contact us at summerschool@mcdonald.nsw.edu.au and supply your booking name and details.

I attended International Summer School in the past. Do I get discount?

All previous ISS attendees will receive a discounted rate of $125 (normal $195) to participate in masterclass.audition. Promotional codes will be sent to previous ISS students in July 2017.

I am a student of The McDonald College. Do I get discount?
